

“59th Schools Dance Festival Admission arrangements for audience”

(As at 27/2/2023)

► Epidemic prevention measures

All users must wear their own masks upon entering the venue.

► Tickets

1. Audiences of participating schools (including participating students, school staff and parents watching the competition) from 27 February to 2 March 2023, only need to follow the instructions of the Tuen Mun Town Hall staff to enter the auditorium at the appropriate time, no admission ticket is required (free seating).
2. Audiences of participating schools (including participating students, school staff and parents watching the competition) from 9 to 11 March 2023 are required to pick up free tickets with the school's name at the ticket counter in the Queen Elizabeth Stadium lobby on the competition day (free seating).
3. In order not to affect the dancers who are performing on the stage and the adjudication work, the audience should abide by the following rules:
  - a) The age of the audience must be over 3 years old;
  - b) The staff of the venue has the right not to allow late comers to enter the venue, and also has the right to determine the time and method of entry for the late comers;
  - c) Avoid leaving the seat during the competition;
  - d) Photography and video recording in the auditorium is strictly prohibited.
4. The latest admission arrangements for audience published on the website at noon time the day before the competition is final.